WHY THIS TRAINING INITIATIVE?

After 40 years as an urban practitioner, Movement.org Founder Mac Pier has made the following observations:

- There is a growing army of motivated Christian leaders passionate to change their cities.
- Most efforts globally are led by motivated individuals or by small organizations.
- There is a need to create more muscularity among leaders and organizations to tackle the great challenges of the 21st-century urban landscape.

In the last 3.5 years, Movement.org has trained 1,000 leaders on five continents.

THE VISION
The vision is to train 5,000 city leaders to impact 1,000 cities by 2033. Prospective scholars will be nominated by leaders currently overseeing gospel movement expressions across six continents where Movement.org has engaged more than 500 cities.

TRAINING OUTCOMES
Each city team will create a 10-year roadmap to accelerate the gospel in their cities. Each city will have at least one "North Star" goal that the Christian community can rally around.

THE MODEL
The model is a three-year cohort. Level 1 focuses on city gospel movement foundations. Level 2 focuses on accelerating your movement. Level 3 focuses on catalytic action by creating a decadal plan for your city.

At the end of the three year experience, scholars will be able to:

- Create a decadal (10-year) plan to scale the impact of their city gospel movement.
- Be trained to teach and preach on cities.
- Become a subject matter expert on their city.
- Grow or plant a Movement Day Expression in their city.

MOVEMENT DAY SCHOLARS CERTIFICATE

Every participant will earn a Movement Day Scholars Certificate by completing the three-year class training, reading the assigned material, and writing book reports.

Movement.org will provide for tuition costs. Students are responsible for book costs. Our desire is that every scholar will have one experience of in-person training.

CONTENT

The MDSP certificate program will allow scholars to learn from some of the most significant urban practitioners in the world over the past 40 years. Scholars will also meet and network with other leaders across five continents.

A MODEL FOR SUCCESS: NYC AND BEYOND

In our partnership with Dr. Tim Keller in the Church Multiplication Alliance, Manhattan experienced 500% church growth from 1989-2014. Movement.org is seeking to export this blueprint for transformation. The Movement Day Scholars Program is a template for creating a 10-year plan to impact 1,000 cities across the world in the next decade.
